This installment of the magazine is dedicated to the work of the French architect Jean Nouvel. In addition to presenting his projects and the most important works since 2007, it includes an interview with Jean Nouvel, by the professor and writer Francis Marmande, and a critical essay by the architect Santiago de Molina, in which he reflects on Jean Nouvel's objectives, concerns and design methods. Among the featured works, the most remarkable ones are La Philharmonie de Paris, Richemont Headquarters, in Geneva, the two housing complexes of Lormont and Cenon in Bordeaux, Hotel Renaissance in Barcelona, One Central Park in Sydney or Residential Building at 40th Mercer in New York, apart from several award-winning competition projects now under construction, Louvre Abu Dhabi, National Museum of Qatar or European Patent Office in Rijswijk.
